CAPTAIN OF THE PORT, WESTERN ALASKA
NAVIGATION SAFETY ADVISORY

Dear Mariner:

Ice conditions in upper Cook Inlet have vastly improved over the last several weeks. Favorable temperature forecasts make it unlikely we will see any significant recurrence of ice in this area, this year.

Therefore, I am deactivating the Phase I precautionary measures of the 2013-2014 Operating Procedures for Ice Conditions in Cook Inlet.

Thank you for your vigilant seamanship in keeping this an incident-free ice season. Questions regarding this advisory or the 2013-2014 Operating Procedures for Ice Conditions in Cook Inlet may be directed to Lieutenant Ryan Butler at (907) 428-4173.

Sincerely,
